Exrs: wife, George Washington, Esq., and John West, Jr.
Wit: John Dalton, Harry Piper, John Kirkpatrick, William Rumney. The above will of Thomas Colvill is of great length. He states that he was originally from Newcastle upon the Tyne, late of Cecil County, Maryland, but at present of Fairfax County, Virginia. Brother John Colvill late of said county of Fairfax by late will, dated 1755, gives and bequeaths to the present Hon. Earl of Tankerville and his heirs a large and valuable estate in land and negroes in Virginia and appointed me acting executor to said will, but bulk of said debts being owing and due persons in England, and power given me to sell and dispose of a large tract of land in Maryland. Earl of Tankerville failed to pay debts or pay Thomas Colvill for his services and he brought suit and court allowed him 829 pounds and seventeen shillings.
" Mother Catherine Colvill died at Newcastle, May, 1719, at which time I was in Virginia, leaving an estate to my said brother and sister Esther, wife of Capt. Mathew Giles, and leaving me a legacy of one hundred pounds. Brother John Colvill was made sole executor. The legacy left sister Esther and myself was not given to us and I was ignorant of same for forty years, until papers found in box of papers left by brother, including mother's will."
